

2020 summary annual reports

december 2021

Benefit Plan Participant,

The Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) requires companies to file an annual report for each benefit plan with the Employee Benefits Security Administration. ERISA also requires that participants be given an annual summary of these financial reports within 60 days after the annual report is filed. This summary is called the Summary Annual Report (SAR). This publication contains the 2020 SARs for the benefit plans shown below. The SARs are presented in plan number (PN) order so that you can locate the plans in which you participate.

Your rights to additional information

The SARs are only summaries. You have the right to receive a copy of a full annual report for any plan, or any part of a report, on request. One or more of the items listed below may be included in that report:

- An accountant's report.
- Assets held for investment.
- Fiduciary information, including transactions between the plan and parties in interest (that is, persons who have certain relationships with the plan).
- Loans or other obligations in default.
- Leases in default.
- Transactions in excess of 5 percent of plan assets.

- Insurance information, including sales commissions paid by insurance carriers.
- Actuarial information about the funding of the plan.
- Information regarding the master trust in which the plan participates.

To obtain a copy of a full annual report for a specific benefit plan, or any part of a report, write to the office of the Plan Administrator, Chevron Corporation, 6001 Bollinger Canyon Road, San Ramon, CA 94583-2324. Please be sure to state the plan number and name of the plan for which you want the annual report.

You can also obtain a copy of the full report without charge from the Internet (search Form 5500 filings) at <http://www.efast.dol.gov/welcome.html>.

You also have the right to receive from the plan administrator, on request and at no charge, a statement of the assets and liabilities of a plan and accompanying notes, or a statement of income and expenses of a plan and accompanying notes, or both. If you request a copy of a full annual report from the plan administrator, these two statements and accompanying notes will be included as part of that report, if applicable.

You also have the legally protected right to examine each annual report at the office of the Plan Administrator, Chevron Corporation, 6001 Bollinger Canyon Road, San Ramon, CA 94583-2324, and at the U.S. Department of Labor in Washington, D.C., or to obtain a copy from the U.S. Department of Labor upon payment of copying costs. Requests to the department should be addressed to: Public Disclosure Room, N1513, Employee Benefits Security Administration, 200 Constitution Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210.
