

What if I become or am sick

resources for U.S.-payroll employees

If you are ill and not able to work, report your absence to your supervisor. If you are unable to work due to illness for more than five work days, you must follow the disability management process to ensure you receive any disability benefits you are eligible for and for accurate time coding.

Your Chevron benefits provide access to virtual health services (or telehealth) for non-emergencies for covered participants. Learn more.

Inform your supervisor and your local Chevron Enterprise Health clinic (search medical clinics). Your local clinic may also be able to provide referral assistance, and will provide guidance on return to work procedures.

Anthem participants can assess symptoms and potential risk for COVID-19 with the free Sydney Care mobile app.

More frequently asked questions are available on the U.S. HR website on the intranet.

